

Vocational Nursing

Jessenia Rosales Curiel

Submitted by Rosette Strandberg

The VN department nominates Jessenia Rosales as our Outstanding Student of the Year. Jessenia excels in all areas of the Vocational Nursing curriculum. She masters difficult theoretical concepts readily in the classroom and has achieved very good grades. Jessenia is always prepared in the lab. She practices diligently and passes all the skill evaluations on her first attempt. Jessenia shines in the clinical setting. All her clinical instructors have reported that she is professional, knowledgeable, organized and has an excellent bedside manner. Jessenia has excellent clinical reasoning skills and she is a strong patient advocate.

Jessenia's Words of Gratitude

I am absolutely humbled and thankful to be receiving this award. It has been one of the greatest and most difficult years of my life. This program has pushed me to grow by challenging me and I am extremely grateful for this experience. I want to give a sincere thank you to all of my instructors for guiding and helping me throughout my journey.